Swati Mandela

BIO

Swati Mandela is an inspiring young leader, who is passionate about being a change agent to benefit future generations. She believes "if we could change ourselves, the tendencies in the world would also change. As a man changes his own nature, so does the attitude of the world toward him. We need not wait to see what others do."

Humanitarian

Inspired by her grandmother who was a guiding light to women who endured the struggles of the apartheid era, Swati is using her platform to expand on that theme. Swati is also dedicated to uplifting and empowering youth through literacy. She is co-founder of the Long Walk to Freedom, a nonprofit that runs the Mandela Library Container Project. This project is responsible for the delivery of over 60 container libraries in South Africa in the last 5 years. Every library delivered impacts almost 1000 children per year for at least 15 years. Having been personally impacted, she lends her voice to the fight against AIDS/HIV. She is also a former ambassador to AIME.

International Speaker

Swati is a nationally and internationally recognized speaker with a passion to tell her story of growing up at the feet of giants. Swati speaks on a variety of topics and customizes her keynotes. Her presentations center around women's empowerment, finding your voice, education, equality and diversity. She uses her talents, experiences and voice to help individuals discover their God given purpose. As a speaker, Swati is inspirational, engaging, humble and witty. Swati Mandela Speaks!

TESTIMONIALS

Daily Pilot

"Swati Dlamini Mandela took it to heart when her late grandfather, Nelson Mandela, South Africa's first black president, issued a call to action when he turned 90: He had done his part, he said, and now was the time for others to step up to make the world a better place."

-Daily Pilot

"Swati is considered one of the most stylish women in South Africa and StyleCon is pleased to support her as she shares her important story."
